476. PRESENTATION JILL NORMAN SUPPORT STAFFORDSHIRE & COMMUNITY OFFICER

Jill Norman addressed the Council in her role with Support Staffordshire, and gave Councillors a very comprehensive overview of the work that Support Staffordshire does in the Community, particularly identifying gaps in services that are available locally. Jill also spoke about the need for volunteering, and advised that their networking in the voluntary and community sectors was a continuous objective for Support Staffordshire in its work. Jill gave out some informative documents relating to this work, including a 'Health Watch' questionnaire for feedback on local services. Jill identified that the gaps that were noticeable in Cheadle were related to provision for young people and those with mental health considerations. Jill concluded her presentation by updating Council on the work carried out by the part-time funded Community Officer, Rick Hermolle, who was putting together a directory for Cheadle in terms of the services and community provision within the town. Jill answered a number of questions at the end of the presentation, and was thanked for attending the meeting.
