295. REPORTS ON OUTSIDE BODIES

Cllr P. Routledge reported that it the Health & Safety Assessment has been carried out at the Allotment site.

Cheadle in Bloom's AGM had taken place and highlighted operational difficulties with funds for the forthcoming year along with volunteers. There has been a policy agreed for close down should the situation not improve. However on a positive there has been 6 new members join and various Councillors offered suggestions that could help, such as engaging with Joe Porter for collaboration with climate change, also to engage with equal base and potential working relations with the Allotments.

Cllr. E. Whitehouse reported that the Toy Bank is well underway for this year, exceeding last year's outreach with potentially doubling the volume of children in need of the service. Approximately 200 children received gifts from the project within Cheadle and across the Staffordshire Moorlands area last year. Cllr E. Whitehouse gave thanks to The Mayor, Equal Base, So Marketing and the Swimming Club for their donations and support. Councillors were asked for their support personally for donations and time for wrapping presents.

Cllr J. Evans reported on the Team Cheadle held a fundraising Car Boot Sale on 7th November on Tape Street car park. The event went was a success and was well received by all. Following the successful event, SMDC have agreed that the car park can used for future dates and potentially become a regular occurrence.

The Light switch on will commence on Saturday 20th November and welcomes all to attend and show their support.

Climate Change - Cllr J. Evans reported that he will be reviewing SMDC's report on Climate Change along with Cllr G. Powell which has recently been published with a view to create an action plan for Cheadle Town Council.

Tourism – Cllr J. Evans reported that he will be hopefully working with Hales Hall and the discovery group in the New Year to enhance Tourism and create working relationships for the Town.

296. CLERKS REPORT

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

The Deputy Clerk reported to council that the event was well supported in attendance by the community. A special thank you to be extended to our workforce for their hard work with the preparations in the lead up and on the day of Remembrance Sunday ensuring that the Cenotaph's best appearance for the service.

During the service unfortunately a member of the public was taken ill, they were attended to by St Johns ambulance and an off duty paramedic on site and recovered shortly after. The member of public attended the Lodge on Monday following the service to report that they had made a full recovery and had misplaced a cufflink/broach during the incident. The Deputy Clerk advised that should this item be handed in they would contact them accordingly.

297. MAYOR'S ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE

Councillor Mrs S. Walley (Mayor) echoed the Deputy Clerks thanks to the workforce for their preparations for Remembrance Sunday. The Event was organised in partnership with Royal British Legion and The Mayor was delighted with the attendance of event and wreath laying. On reflection it was highlighted that during the service at the Cenotaph that a microphone/speakers would be a beneficial for future Remembrance Services.

There being no further business the meeting was brought to a close.
